WHAT WILL TRAINEES GET?

FOREST SCHOOLS EDUCATION

Sarah Blackwell founded Forest Schools Education in 2001 after discovering the incredible benefits of a learner-lead, nature-based, experiential education system that offers a life-long effects to children, and also adults.

For over 20 years, Forest Schools Education has successfully trained more than 25,000 Forest Schools Leaders worldwide, still, we keep developing our courses to ensure that we will always deliver the best trainings to everyone who seek to see positive changes in the world.

"The [training] was the most motivating and inspirational week I have ever had in my career. Every aspect was wonderfully communicated. I left to continue my Forest School journey feeling well supported and very enthused with the whole concept and ethos."

Julian Sandford
Forest Schools Trainee

We Have Trained...

...and many more independent learners and organizations from all different backgrounds.

We believe that each children is different and not meant to be valued using the one-size-fits-all measurement, but to be recognized of their individual strengths and challenges, and to be consistently supported to become the unique individuals who they are naturally meant to be.

We have helped thousands of schools change the way they teach forever, come join us in this training with one of the world's most experienced and dedicated trainers and begin your Forest Schools journey together.

"Ideally, success in a workplace is being able to say "Yes" to the question:
Is the world a better place
because of the work that we did today?"
