Ark Eden is a leading eco-education and permaculture centre based on Lantau Island, Hong Kong. Nestled in a lush green valley, your family will spend the day in the lap of nature with fun, guided activities and access to our wilderness playground, stream, and beautiful hiking trails. Let's create some core memories together at this beautiful site.

Grab your family and join us in the forest for a day of learning and fun!
Feeling more adventurous? Join us after for a family camping experience to continue the adventure!
